Supply Fee: $15.00/semester

Supplies: Some simple costuming may be required. More information will come as skits and performances are chosen.

(Cost and parents' time will be kept minimal. If additional supplies need to be purchased beyond what are covered by the Supply Fee, the tutor may consider fundraising opportunities. Additionally, parents are welcome to donate costuming supplies.)

Class Overview:

For the 2026-2027 school year, this class will primarily focus on the dramatic aspect of performing arts, culminating in a spring play to be performed in conjunction with Pioneers' Open House. Plays in previous years include Esther: For Such a Time As This (2026), George Muller: My Father's Prayers (2025), and The Trial of the Big Bad Wolf (2024). Group chorale recitations will also be performed. In addition, there will be some musical preparation and presentations for both Christmas and Honors Night in May.

Because space is limited, placement in this class is not guaranteed. All registrations will be reviewed and notified of their placement status.

All levels of skill are welcome. Performing Arts is an opportunity to build confidence and enhance expressive skills in a fun, creative environment. These include:

- Public Speaking
- Movement
- Projection
- Enunciation
- Adaptability
- Respect for others and our platform
- Recitation
- Character analysis and development
- Creativity
- Problem solving
- Collaboration
- Teamwork
- Improvisation

Homework will be minimal but will include script memorization and any projects necessary to aid in presentations.

Student Evaluation: Students will receive a letter grade each semester based upon effort, attitude, participation, and completion of assigned projects.
